

CCW Pages 29-39 Questions

Pg. 30

35. Why has hockey been such a strong part of our national identity?

37. Do you feel that the United States has gained too dominant a position in the NHL? Why do many Canadians not find this state of affairs terribly upsetting?

Pg.33

39. In which province do teenagers watch the most television? The least television? Where do Manitoban teenagers fit within this range?

40. Who watches more television, children under twelve years of age, or teenagers. Why do you think this is?

41. Which age category watches the least amount of television in Manitoba?

42. What general correlation do you see between age and amount of television-watching? In other words, do people watch more or less television as they get older? Why do you think this is?

43. Why are cultural industries important to a nation's identity?

44. What fears do some people have about the amount of American television Canadians watch?

47. Name some of the ways in which American culture came to Canada before the invention of television.

48. Make a timeline of major steps taken by the government to protect Canadian culture from American influences.

49. How has American culture affected you and your community? Discuss.

51. Which aspect of the Broadcasting Act of 1991 do you feel is the most important? Give reasons for your point of view.